ICPSR PROCESSING NOTES FOR #37938

TransPop, United States, 2016-2018

DS #3: Cisgender Data for Public-Use

1. Confidentiality/Disclosure Risk: In order to protect respondent anonymity and prevent disclosure risk, ICPSR spot-masked the following variables in the data: Q21_VERB, Q50_VERB. The following geographic variables were masked: GMSANAME, GZIPCODE, and GZIPSTATE. The open-ended numeric age variables, AGE and Q146, were top-coded at 90 and 1929 - respectively.
2. Variable Name Discrepancy: In the P.I. Codebook for Cisgender Data, the variable Q50_VERB is named Q50.
3. Qualitative Data File: The variables Q21_VERB, Q32_VERB, Q45_VERB, Q50_VERB, Q47_VERB, Q153_VERB were exported to a comma delimited (CSV) file which is available for download and can be linked to the dataset via the STUDYID variable.
4. Additional Information: For additional information on the TransPop Study, please visit the TransPop website.

Variable Description and Frequencies

Note: Frequencies displayed for the variables are not weighted. They are purely descriptive and may not be representative of the study population. Please review any sampling or weighting information available with the study.

Summary statistics (minimum, maximum, arithmetic mean, median, mode, and standard deviation) may not be available for every variable in the codebook. Conversely, a listing of frequencies in table format may not be present for every variable in the codebook either. However, all variables in the dataset are present and display sufficient information about each variable. These decisions are made intentionally and are at the discretion of the archive producing this codebook.

Some people describe themselves as transgender when they experience a different gender identity from their sex at birth. For example, a person born into a male body, but who feels female or lives as a woman would be transgender. Some transgender people change their physical appearance so that it matches their internal gender identity. Some transgender people take hormones and some have surgery. A transgender person may be of any sexual orientation - straight, gay, lesbian, or bisexual.
